

Aberfeldy Film Festival

A Feast for the Eyes

Join us for a cinematic celebration of food and drink

Friday 13 – Sunday 15 November 2015

Friday 13 – Gala Opening at the Birks Cinema

18.00 Canapés, cocktails and a canapé competition.

19.30 Julie and Julia Meryl Streep is TV cook Julia Childs. When Julie (Amy Adams) attempts all the recipes in her first cook book in one year the results are varied.

Combined Ticket: £15.00 Film only: Usual Birks prices

Saturday 14

10.15 Kitchen Dreams UK Premiere - Meet the Director. Willy Wonka & the Chocolate Factory, with Gene Wilder.

Dress for the occasion and win the fancy dress prize!

Young Birks price.

11.00 A Film Director's Guide to Chocolate Tasting session with award-winning chocolate maker, Charlotte Flower. Locus Centre, Aberfeldy Square. Free

12.30 Community Meal and Kitchen Dreams. Locus Centre. Talk on Food, Culture and Cinema with Spanish director Felipe Ugarte. Free entry if you bring a dish to share, otherwise £5.00 Accompanied children free. See over for more details.

17.00 Palme-Dewar Short Film Competition 2015 View the top entries and cast your vote for the winner. Dewar's Aberfeldy Distillery £5.00 Booking advised

18.45 Indian Buffet at the Birks. Booking advised.

20.00 The Lunchbox A mistake in Mumbai's famous lunchbox delivery system links a young housewife and an older man. Combined Ticket: £15.00. Film only: Usual Birks prices.

Heartland Film Society extends grateful thanks to the Birks Cinema Manager and staff, Dewar's Aberfeldy Distillery and the Scottish Hydro Griffin Fund

Sunday 15

Animated Film Workshops - The Locus Centre, Aberfeldy Hands-on sessions where youngsters can learn some of the techniques of animation, create characters and a story and make their own short film.

With Jim Stirk of Animation Jam

10.30-12.30 Ages 7-11 Maximum 12 per Group.

13.15-15.15 Ages 12-17 £10.00 Booking required.

13.00 Making Ends Meat A housewife finds an unusual way to stretch the housekeeping budget. Meet the Director, Alex Horsfall.

Followed by Babette's Feast. 19th Century Danish villagers lead an austere life until a Frenchwoman introduces them to the sensual pleasures of good cooking. Usual Birks prices.

18.00 Meet My World Short films written and presented by Quechua youngsters being assisted by the charity Amantani.

Followed by Eat Drink Man Woman. A master chef brings his family together at elaborate Sunday dinners. Directed by Ang Lee. Usual Birks prices.

Canape Competition

Entries are invited in the form of a display of 4 identical canapés, to be judged by local experts - and eagerly consumed by film-goers! Cocktails and a further selection of canapés will be provided by the Birks. Competition entry forms available from the Birks and through various local organisations.

Community Meal

Cook your favourite recipe - from home or abroad - and bring it to enjoy with others. There will be limited facilities for re-heating. Tea, coffee and soft drinks will be supplied and, for those not contributing a dish, there will be a charge of £5.00. No charge for children accompanied by adults.

All tickets and confirmation of film times from The Birks Cinema:
www.birkscinema.co.uk 01887 822845 Ext: 1

Programme details can also be found on: www.heartlandfilmsociety.org.uk

