

Aberfeldy Film Festival

SOUND TRACKS A Celebration of Music in Film Friday 18 - Sunday 20 November 2016

Sunday 06 November - Pre-Festival Event

19.00 The Battle of the Sexes Jointly presented by HFS and Aberfeldy Festival of music, this is a rare chance to see D W Griffith's silent masterpiece, with live accompaniment from the Jane Gardner trio. The Birks Cinema, usual prices.

Friday 18 - Gala Opening at the Birks Cinema

18.30 Get dressed up as one of the characters for some fun, live music, dance moves, nibbles and drinks before the show.

20.00 The Rocky Horror Picture Show In a wildly funny homage to sci-fi/horror movies, a young couple seek shelter at the home of Dr Frank-N-Furter. How will they cope with the bizarre characters and weird experiences they encounter? Audience participation in this cult classic is traditional – but not compulsory! With Tim Curry, Susan Sarandon Barry Bostock, Richard O'Brien, Meatloaf. Combined ticket, Gala opening + Film: £17.50, booking advised. Film only: usual Birks prices.

Saturday 19

10.15 Oddball and the Penguins An eccentric chicken farmer trains his mischievous dog, Oddball, to protect a penguin sanctuary from foxes. Based on a true story, the film features irresistible animals and a gentle environmental message. (Plus a surprise short film) Birks Cinema - Little Birks price.

12.30 - 14.30 Meet the Directors and Bring-a-Dish Lunch Bring your favourite dish to enjoy with others while guest directors Riccardo Bernasconi and Francesca Reverdito of Studio Asparagus talk about film making and show their two short films Tzirk and Death for a Unicorn, inspired by a visit to Scotland.

Tea, coffee and soft drinks supplied. Limited facilities for re-heating. Free entry with a dish to share, otherwise £5.00. Accompanied children free. The Locus Centre, The Square, Aberfeldy

Saturday 19

17.00 At Dewar's Aberfeldy Distillery

Palme-Dewar Short Film Competition 2016

View the top entries in this popular competition for short films made in, or about, Scotland and cast your vote for the winner. Presentation of prizes. Tickets £5.00 from the Birks Cinema - or on the door, but booking advised.

Also: 17.00 At the Birks Cinema

André Rieu Christmas with André This CinemaLive event features his full 2015 festive concert, packed with Christmas favourites, a tour of Maastricht's Christmas highlights and a Q&A. Usual Birks prices.

18.45 - 20.00 Buffet Meal Join us upstairs in the Birks for a Latino inspired buffet before the film. All welcome - booking advised.

20.00 West Side Story In a modern-day Romeo and Juliet, two rival gangs clash in the New York streets. When Tony and Maria fall in love across the divide, tragedy looms. A vibrant, dramatic musical with a score by Bernstein, lyrics by Sondheim and choreography by Jerome Robbins. Combined ticket, buffet + film: £17.50 Drinks extra. Film only: usual prices.

Sunday 20

11.00 Young Indies Short Film Competition - new this year!

Local youngsters from 5-17 have been busy creating their own short films. The best entries will be screened at the Birks, where, along with the judges, you can cast your vote for the winner. Presentation of prizes. Free entry, but booking required.

13.00 The Red Violin The fascinating story of a unique instrument and its impact on those who play it, as it passes through centuries and countries - from Cremona in 1681 to modern-day Montreal. Usual Birks prices.

18.00 Amy With previously unheard tracks, old footage and contributions from friends and family, this deeply moving documentary explores the highs and lows of Amy Winehouse's tragically short life. Directed by Asif Kapadia (Senna, The Warrior) Usual Birks prices.

All tickets and full details from the Birks Cinema: www.birkscinema.co.uk 01887 822845 Ext:1
Follow the Birks Cinema and Aberfeldy Film Festival on Facebook
Heartland Film Society extends grateful thanks to the Birks Cinema, Dewar's Aberfeldy Distillery, Regional Screen Scotland, Into Film and all who have given assistance

Heartland Film Society www.heartlandfilmsociety.org.uk

