

Young Indies Short Film Competition 2018

Judging Criteria

Films may be documentary, drama and/or animation.

In general apply the following criteria (though other factors may also be relevant).

Story: Is there a story?
Is the story coherent?
Is the story well told?

Image: Are the images engaging?
Are images well focussed / well lit? (If not, is this intentional?)
Do images flow together? (If not, is this intentional?)
If animation, are the image sequences well contrived?

Sound: Is the sound clear? (If not, is this intentional?)
Does the sound (or lack of it) help to carry the story?
If there is music or sound effects do these enhance the story?

General: Has the film an objective?
If so, does it achieve its objective?
